And the best ones (by the way, many of them are co-authors) will tell you about their impressions, experiences and, perhaps, will surprise you. The author of the most vivid impressions is V. Simonov ===== Å, I usually think that buying a car and traveling are two different things. However, this time I decided to combine. And if I'm bored selling a car, then it's interesting to travel. First of all, this is because you do everything yourself in the car (because you donâ€™t see the client, heâ€™s not visible at all) and you donâ€™t have the opportunity to guide or calm him down.

It is important for me to understand what I get from this trip. I am interested not only in what surrounds me, but also in what I encounter. But the main value of this trip is that it gave me the opportunity to see and understand that sometimes you donâ€™t know what awaits you. I saw and understood what I was capable of. And, if I had not stopped by the Bonobo reserve (in Papua New Guinea) and our wildlife, I would never have been able to understand it. And now I feel great satisfaction that I returned to Russia (or rather, to Siberia), and that I was able to go there. Unfortunately, there were few such expeditions in our country. First of all, it was an expedition to Paris in 2001. With its organizer, we received free tickets to the Grand Final of the World Figure Skating Championship, which was taking place at that moment in Moscow. With this money we went to Paris. There we were met by a friend who helped us and accompanied us. We had to leave some money for him so that he could buy a plane ticket. But on the way, we did the opposite: we exchanged money for euros, and already in Marseilles we exchanged euros back for dollars. Our road was quite long. We were on the road for nine days (approximately) and stayed in very cheap hotels. Then on the day of departure we went to watch the Grand Prix at the stadium. And there we found the Olympic Hockey Palace. We went through all the stands, everything that is possible. And they couldn't find a ticket to the World Cup final. But we found our happiness at the controllers: it turned out that the tickets are very cheap, and we bought them. And such a trip was not only
